

Victoria Park

This presentation is about what we did in our day out in Victoria Park

About Victoria Park

- Victoria Park is a big park full of histories.
- It is the largest park in Tower Hamlets.
- There are two cafes in the park called Pavilion café in the west and the Hub in the east.
- There is a skatepark in the east of the park.

We used the slides on our visit.

On this photo you can see the longest slide.

We took a nice walk through the park.

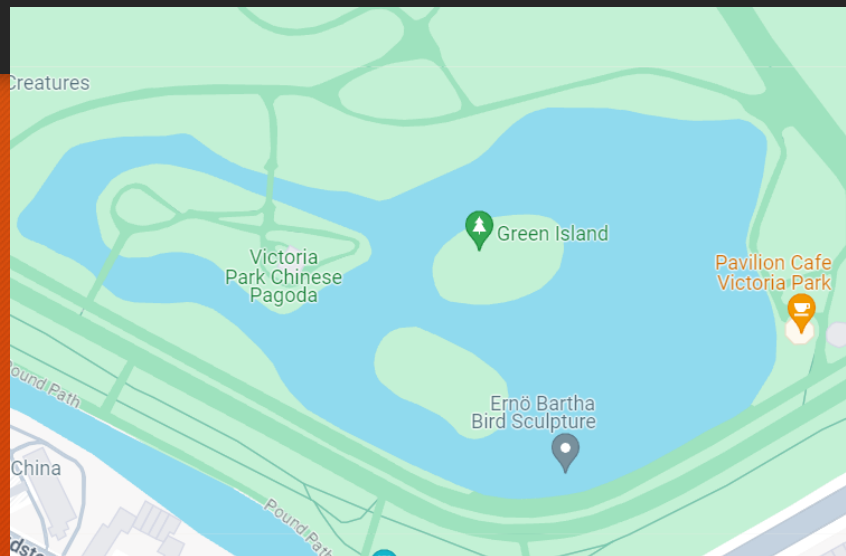

The Chinese Pagoda

- It is for people to see and take photos of it.
- They look at the architecture.
- Pagoda was made for religious function as buddhist festivals.

Victoria Park West Lake

- The lake looks amazing for the ducks to swim.
- You could go on the boat in the lake.
- I took a screenshot of a lake in google maps.

Victoria Park Skate Park

- It's for skateboarding.
- It looks like it's for anyone to enjoy themselves.
- It's for bikes as well.
- It looks unique.
